Northern Capital Insurance Group Named a 'Circle of Excellence Agency' by Western National Insurance Group

(Minneapolis, Minn.) Western National Insurance Group today announced that Bloomington-based Northern Capital Insurance Group has been named one of Western National's Circle of Excellence Agencies for 2016.

The Western National Circle of Excellence recognition is announced annually to spotlight an elite group of partners who have excelled based on performance and growth over the past six years (2010 - 2015). An agency must also demonstrate that they meet high standards of professional excellence and integrity in order to be considered for this recognition. Northern Capital Insurance Group's place among this list is a testament to the overall quality of the agency's insurance professionals and their commitment to meeting the needs of their insurance clients.

This recognition places Northern Capital Insurance Group in the 90th percentile of all Western National partners for overall performance, growth, and partnership over the past six years.

Western National Insurance Group, headquartered in Edina, Minn., is a super-regional group of seven active property-and-casualty insurance companies. The Group insures personal and business coverages plus surety in 19 states across the Midwestern, Northwestern, and Southwestern U.S.; and surety-only in another 7 states. The Group distributes its products exclusively through Independent Insurance Agents.
